

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALES

1. Scope of Application

These terms and conditions of sale ("T&C") shall apply to all sales of goods ("Goods") made by our company ("Supplier") and are binding on the buyer ("Buyer") and the Supplier (together the "Parties"). Any order placed with the Supplier shall constitute the acceptance by the Buyer of these T&C, which shall supersede the Buyer's own general terms and conditions of purchase. These T&C shall form, together with the order, the entire contract between the Supplier and the Buyer ("Contract"). No amendment, changes or additional terms proposed by Buyer to these T&C shall be valid unless expressly accepted in writing by the Supplier.

2. Orders

Orders shall become firm and definitive only after written acceptance and confirmation by the Supplier. The same rule applies to all amendments, changes and additional terms and conditions. In the event of any inconsistencies between these T&C and any particular conditions or orders agreed upon between the Parties in writing, the particular conditions or orders shall prevail. An order may not be cancelled by the Buyer in whole or in part without the prior agreement in writing of the Supplier, including fair and reasonable compensation paid to Supplier.

3. Prices - Payment Terms

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, prices between the Supplier and the Buyer are stated Ex Works, facility designated by Supplier (as per the version of Incoterms in force at the date of entering into the Contract), plus any applicable value added tax or other taxes, charges or duties, as the case may be.

Unless otherwise stated, payment shall be made within 30 days from the date of invoice, by bank transfer to the bank account of the Supplier. No discount shall apply for early payment. The Buyer shall be discharged of its payment obligations only upon receipt in the bank account of the Supplier of all sums due.

Subject to any applicable mandatory law, any amounts outstanding after 30 days from the date of the invoice shall bear interest, at the rate of 2% above current 1-month Libor, without prejudice to any other rights and remedies of the Supplier, including, without limitation, the right to cancel all or part of the Contract, to suspend deliveries and to demand immediate payment for all Goods previously delivered.

If, in the Supplier's reasonable opinion, the Buyer's creditworthiness is or is likely to be compromised, the Supplier shall have the right to request advance payment of all sums due, or any guarantee necessary to secure the payment of the Goods. Should the Supplier not obtain the guarantees requested, it shall have the right to suspend or cancel in whole or in part the Contract without liability.

The Buyer shall not be entitled for any reason to set off or withhold payment of any amount payable under the Contract to the Supplier.

In case of (i) changes to legal, regulations or economic conditions, or in case of (ii) changes to tax or customs duties after the issuance of Supplier's price offer, the latter reserves the right at its option to renegotiate the price offered or to terminate the Contract on this ground. In such case and notwithstanding any contrary provision, the Buyer will not be entitled to any indemnity/compensation/damages whatsoever.

4. Quality - Inspection - Acceptance

The Supplier warrants that the Goods shall conform to the agreed specifications. The Buyer is solely responsible for the choice of the Goods and their specifications. Deviations from measurements, weight, quantity and quality are permissible within the framework of applicable standards or customary practice.

If the Parties have agreed that the Goods are to be inspected by the Buyer at the factory, the Supplier shall give reasonable notice to the Buyer that the Goods are ready for inspection. If the Buyer, or its appointed representative, fails to show up for inspection on the date specified in the notice, the Supplier shall have the right to place the Goods in storage at the cost and risk of the Buyer and to invoice the Goods and storage costs to the Buyer pending release. The Buyer is solely responsible for the appointment and shall bear the full cost of any inspector.

The Buyer shall inspect the Goods within 15 days of delivery, failing which the Goods shall be deemed accepted and in conformity with the agreed specifications. The Buyer shall notify the Seller in writing of any non-conformity of the Goods without undue delay. Each claim, if any, shall set forth all relevant available details. The Goods shall then be inspected jointly and the representatives of the Supplier shall be permitted to take such samples and make such investigations as the Supplier deems necessary.

5. Delivery - Transfer of Risks

All Goods shall be delivered Ex Works, facility designated by Supplier (as per version of Incoterms in force at the date of entering into the Contract) and unpacked, unless otherwise agreed in writing. The risk of the Goods shall pass to the Buyer in accordance with the applicable Incoterm. The Buyer shall insure such risks accordingly. The Buyer shall be responsible for complying with all applicable laws and regulations concerning the importation and use of the Goods. The Buyer shall be responsible for making any claim or reservation to the carrier within the applicable time limit.

Delivery dates are estimates only. If the Supplier is unable to deliver the Goods or to make the Goods available at the Supplier's factory on the agreed delivery dates, the Supplier shall promptly notify the Buyer of the delay. The Supplier and the Buyer shall discuss in good faith mutually acceptable revised delivery dates. However, in the absence of express agreement of the Supplier when the order is placed, the Supplier shall not be liable for any damages, interest, indemnification or penalty for late delivery. The Supplier is entitled to make partial deliveries of the Goods.

In the event that the Buyer does not take delivery of the Goods for any reason after having received the Supplier's ready for shipment notice, the Supplier shall have the right to complete delivery by placing the Goods in storage at the cost and risk of the Buyer and to invoice the Goods and storage costs to the Buyer.

6. Intellectual Property Rights - Confidentiality

The Contract does not grant any right or license, and no other right or license is to be implied by, or inferred from, any provision of the Contract or by the conduct of the Parties, with respect to any intellectual property right, including without limitation, drawings, specifications, plans, models, samples, process, trade secret, know-how, patents or design of either Party. The Supplier shall remain the exclusive owner of all intellectual property rights relating to the Goods, or discovered by the Supplier as a result of, or incidental to, the performance of the Contract.

The Buyer shall keep as strictly confidential and shall not disclose to any third party, nor use for any purpose other than the proper performance of the Contract, any information of whatever nature regarding the Supplier and/or the Goods.

If the Goods are manufactured according to Buyer's design, Buyer shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Supplier against any claims or liability for patent infringement related to such design.

For the purposes of this Contract, an event of force majeure shall mean any unforeseeable circumstance due to any cause beyond the reasonable control of either Party, (including, without limitation, flood, governmental act or regulation, act of God, war, strike, lockout, labour interruption, shortage of labour, serious accident, breakdown or partial failure of plant or machinery, shortage of raw materials and/or means of transport or energy or any act or omission of any third party concerned with the manufacture, processing or delivery of the Goods) which occurs after the execution of the Contract and prevents the performance of all or part thereof, provided however, that force majeure does not justify a suspension of payments for Goods already delivered.

The occurrence of an event of force majeure shall cause temporary suspension of the respective obligations of the Parties for a period equal to the period of the continuing force majeure or the consequences thereof, without any liability or compensation to either Party.

8. Title

Title to the Goods shall pass to the Buyer upon full payment of the pertaining invoice.

9. Warranty

The Supplier warrants that, for a period of the lesser of 12 months from installation or 18 months from delivery, the Goods shall be free from hidden defects resulting from faults in material or workmanship which render the Goods non-conforming with the agreed specifications. Liability of the Supplier under this warranty is limited to repair or refund of the defective Goods, or delivery of replacement Goods at the agreed delivery point, at the Supplier's option. Buyer will not be entitled to any other remedy (such as the purchase of goods from a third party at Supplier's expenses, which is expressly excluded).

The Supplier's warranty applicable to the original Goods shall also apply to the repaired or replaced Goods for a period of 12 months after completion of repair or replacement under this warranty.

The foregoing warranty shall not apply to normal wear and tear, damage caused by the Buyer or a third party, or any misuse of the Goods.

The Buyer shall notify the Supplier in writing of any warranty claim without undue delay. If the Buyer resells the Goods, the Buyer shall cause the substantive terms of Articles 9 and 10 to apply to the resale, without reservation. If the Buyer fails to do so, it shall indemnify the Supplier in respect of all expenses, claims or damages in excess of the warranty and damage limitations set out in Articles 9 and 10.

10. Limitation of Liability - Time-Barring of Legal Action

The Supplier shall in no case have any liability for direct, indirect, consequential, punitive or other damages (including, without limitation, costs, expenses, fees (including legal fees), loss of use, loss of profit, loss of data, loss of production, delayed production or business interruption) whether or not foreseeable at the effective date of the Contract, or for any infringement of intellectual property rights of third parties.

Any legal action on any grounds, whether based on warranty, in tort, under contract or otherwise at law, must be commenced

11. Indemnification

The indemnities given in this clause shall apply irrespective of cause and notwithstanding the negligence or breach of duty (whether statutory or otherwise) of the indemnified party or any other entity or party and shall apply irrespective of whether any claim is based in tort, under contract or otherwise at law.

For the purposes of this clause, "Buyer's Group" means Buyer, its co-venturers, its and their respective affiliates and its and their respective directors, officers and employees (including agency personnel), but shall not include any member of the Supplier's Group. Arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in Paris, France, and in the English language. The decision of the arbitrators shall be final, binding and enforceable upon the parties and judgment upon any award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof. 14. Miscellaneous

The Supplier shall be entitled, without prejudice to its other rights and remedies, either to terminate all or part of any or every Contract or to suspend any deliveries if the Buyer becomes insolvent or enters into any composition, arrangement or agreement (including a voluntary arrangement or agreement) with its creditors, or has passed a resolution for voluntary winding up.

The Buyer shall not sub-contract or assign all or any part of its respective rights or obligations under the Contract to any third party. However, the Supplier shall have the right to have all or part of the Contract performed by one of its subsidiaries or affiliated companies.

Any failure by the Supplier to enforce any provision of these T&C shall not be deemed to be a waiver of such provision.

The Buyer represents that it conducts its business according to ethical rules in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulation and in compliance with Neotiss Ethic Charter available on its website.
